

CRÜE NATION

A Tribute to Mötley Crüe

BIO

Crüe Nation, hailing from Kansas City, KS performs tribute to the #1 Bad Boys of Rock, Motley Crue. The tribute is fronted by John "Jay" Holliday (Vince Neil) who belts out precise vocal release. His range, tone and stage presence puts him in the limelight with audiences quickly. Combined with the incredible guitar riffs of Ryan Repking (Mick Mars), the thunder of David Gray (Nikki Sixx) on bass and tight rhythms with just the right amount of unpredictability that made Tommy Lee famous, Olly Oliver (Tommy Lee) on drums

Strongly rooted in the Midwest, but opening up 2023 to national touring, Crüe Nation powerfully DELIVERS the choice choruses, larger than life riffs and raw energy that precisely parallels Motley Crue's styling that launched their careers in the 80s.

While relative new comers with two (2) years of performances under their belt, Crüe Nation places passion into their tribute that is immediately picked up by the audience. Everyone is standing and open areas are packed with persons dancing to the widely recognized music. Crüe Nation makes sure crowd interaction is at a peak at each performance.

Bring on the "GIRLS, GIRLS, GIRLS"! They might have "10 Seconds to Love".
